Dear Counsel and ICDR,

I write on behalf of Richard Ziegler and myself to inform you that as a result of the strike and rank process Mr. Marc Goldstein has been selected as the president of the Tribunal. We thank you for your cooperation. We request that the ICDR proceed to inform Mr. Goldstein of his selection, and to take the steps necessary to secure his appointment.

Best regards,
Mélida Hodgson and Richard Ziegler

Dear Counsel,

We confirm that the correct deadline is June 28 and apologize for our oversight.

Sincerely,

Richard Ziegler and on behalf of Ms. Hodgson

Mr. Ziegler and Ms. Hodgson: thank you for confirming the list of chair candidates is final. I write on behalf of AMLQ to respectfully request clarification on the deadline for submitting strike(s)/rankings. The parties' May 17, 2021 agreement provides that "[e]ach side's report of its strike(s)/ranking will be made to its designated co-arbitrator on the fifth business day after the co-arbitrators have jointly reported that the list is final (or such earlier time as the Parties may agree)." The list was reported as final today, which is a non-business day (many offices, including ours, are officially closed in observance of Juneteenth, which is as of yesterday a federal holiday), and the parties have not agreed to an earlier deadline. Accordingly, AMLQ's understanding is that the agreed-upon deadline to submit strike(s)/rankings is June 28, 2021. We will endeavor to submit strike(s)/rankings in advance of then but would appreciate if you could please confirm that June 28, 2021 is the deadline. Thank you for your attention to this and your continued efforts in this process.

Best,
Chris

Dear Counsel,

On behalf of Ms. Hodgson and myself, please be advised that the five candidates identified below have expressed willingness to serve as the chair of the Tribunal in this matter and do not appear to have any disqualifying conflicts or disclosures. It is therefore timely for the Parties to apply the strike/rank process to this slate, under which each side is free to strike up to two of the five candidates and rank order their preference of the remaining candidates (with 1 being the strongest preference). The rank orders should be supplied solely to the two co-arbitrators without copying counsel for the adverse Parties.

Please report your respective rankings to the two of us by close of business on Monday, June 21.

If either side wishes to speak with the arbitrator selected by that side, they are free to arrange such a discussion before the strike/rank deadline. As we have previously noted, however, the co-arbitrators are constrained in what they can say about the candidates and have agreed to limit any remarks to those they have already shared with each other.

The five candidates, in alphabetical order, are:

Stephanie Cohen
Marc Goldstein
Grant Hanessian
Philip Lacovara
Mark Morril

Sincerely,

Richard F. Ziegler, and for Mélida Hodgson
